

The Carole Price-Shanis Scholarship
Interior Design Educators Council Foundation, Inc.
Call for Applications
2007

Purpose: To provide support for the purpose of returning to school to advance your interior design education.

Amount: $3,000 total will be available for up to two scholarships. These will be determined by February 28 and announced at the 2007 IDEC Annual Conference.

Eligibility: Eligible persons include graduate students, educators, and practitioners who have a degree from a recognized Interior Design program and who hold membership in a professional Interior Design organization. Previous recipients of this award are not eligible.

Submit:

1. This completed cover sheet with contact information.
2. A written description of how you intend to use this scholarship to further your education, how you will benefit, and an itemized budget with justification. Be specific, i.e., type of professional development, course names (if appropriate) and descriptions, location, cost, etc. The funds cannot be used for computers or rent. Limit to three pages, word processed, 10-point font minimum. Your name should NOT appear on this written description to retain the integrity of a blind review.
3. Attach proof of your membership in an interior design organization (e.g. membership number).

Note: If any of the above is not included, the application will be rejected without review. Any inclusions other than those requested shall be eliminated from your application. Do not fax or send electronically. Mail to: Theodore Drab, Oklahoma State University, 439 HES, Stillwater, OK 74078.

Due Date: Postmarked on or before January 15, 2007. Include six copies of all materials (this cover sheet and your proposal).
