Design with Compassion

IDEC 2011 East Regional Conference

October 21 & 22, 2011
Pittsburgh, PA

Hosted by: Art Institute of Pittsburgh & Chatham University

CONFERENCE THEME

Design with Compassion

Are interior designers willing to take a design risk to help others live better? Interior Designers have been charged with the health, safety and wellbeing of our clients through the designs we create. What else are interior designers doing to help others during times of need? How do interior designers embrace and demonstrate their compassion for global issues? How can interior designers begin to think bigger in order to reach beyond our local market and extend ourselves to the world?
