Image 2. Shelter used for testing on the six men. Shelter is smaller in size and utilizes light weight material. Straps have been added so that individuals can carry the shelter similar to a backpack. Netting was added to the front and back of the shelter to provide natural ventilation and increased privacy. A small pocket provides storage for personal items.