Council of Fellows
The Council consists of all Professional members who have been designated as Fellows.

The Chair of the Council of Fellows serves a two-year term of office and is selected by the following procedure:

- Nominations for Chair take place in odd numbered years at the meeting of the Council at the Annual Conference. Additional nominations can be made on the ballot.
- Voting is held in conjunction with the annual IDEC officer elections.
- The Chair is elected by a simple majority of the ballots cast by Fellow Members.
- The Chair takes office at the end of the meeting of the Council at the Annual Conference in even-numbered years.

Fellow status for Professional members of IDEC is selected by the Fellows Selection Committee from nominations and approved by the Council of Fellows. The following procedures guide the selection process:

Criteria for elevation to Fellow in the Interior Design Educators Council
Fellow status is a professional membership category designed to honor an IDEC member who has demonstrated:
1. Sustained and significant participation in the Interior Design Educators Council; and,
2. Ongoing and valuable contribution to interior design education.

Procedure
The vote of the Fellows Selection Committee (FSC) and of the Council of Fellows (COF) is based on the documentation submitted rather than on personal knowledge of the nominee.

Both criteria for elevation to Fellow must be considered in deliberation, but both need not be equal in magnitude. Naming a Fellow(s) each year is not a requisite. The following deadlines must be observed:
