Process

- Competition is posted on IDEC web site for dissemination to educational institutions.
- Each Regional Chair or Regional Student Competition Coordinator will receive the top three entries from all participating schools in their region and will arrange for judging of regional submissions. After selecting the top three undergraduate and 1 graduate entries within each region, these will then be sent to the Student Competition Coordinator for the final jurying process.
- At the Annual Conference the Student Competition Coordinator will exhibit the top twenty projects (four from each of the five regions) and will announce the winners at the Annual Awards Banquet. Winners include (but are not limited to) first place, second place, third place and honorable mention at the undergraduate level and on first place at the graduate level.
- The Student Competition Coordinator for the upcoming year will be responsible for making a brief presentation at the Annual Awards Banquet regarding the following year's competition focus.
- Coordinating Jurying Process. Headquarters will distribute electronic files to each region for the jurying process. The Regional Chair or Regional Student Competition Coordinator will log entries and check their adherence to competition guidelines. Ineligible projects may be removed prior to the regional judging process. The structure of the jury, identified by the Regional Student Competition Coordinator, should be carefully selected.
to bring a variety of perspectives to address the goals stated in the competition. Specific rules and guidelines (i.e., scoring sheet) established during the development of the competition requirements will be provided to the jury to ensure a fair and orderly judging process.
